DON'T MISS STORIES. FOLLOW RACKED LA

It's been a minute since we last checked up on The Point, that colorful lifestyle center that arrived in El Segundo last fall. Already home to Vicara Salon and Spa, the South Bay shopping center will soon offer more another beautification option when Bellacures opens its seventh LA outpost (and eighth stateside location!) there next month.

Founded by entrepreneurial lady boss Samira Far, the space will debut the luxe nail salon's fashionable new look. It'll offer Bellacures's signature cozy lounge chairs and high-end manicure and pedicure services (including gels and acrylics), plus waxing.

The lacquer shop opens next week; stay tuned for more.
