

FACES OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP

The Nasdaq Entrepreneurial Center in San Francisco has quickly become a hub for entrepreneurs in the Bay Area. Below are a few photos of some of the entrepreneurs who have stopped by the Center to learn and grow.

MARKETINSITE

Ideas that drive capital markets

FACES OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP

FACES OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP

"ONEHOPE was founded with the mission of becoming the adult version of Girls Scouts cookies. We believe that you can be a for-profit business and sell high quality products like wine, coffee, and gifting, but also have a larger social mission.

Non-profits do phenomenal work, there is no doubt, but their only funding for programmming is ongoing donations and that is a huge intractable challenge.

And so we believe that if you can generate profits and share a portion with vetted global charities, then you can create a much higher probability of solving the world's biggest problems."

Logan Allin, CFO of ONEHOPE Wine -- photo: Eastwick Digital Brand Lab

Read the full article here:

<http://business.nasdaq.com/marketinsite/2016/Faces-of-Entrepreneurship.html>